- 9. The railroad from Tungliao (122-14, 43-38) to Changwu (122-29, 42-23) is now operating as far as Fengchiawopeng (122-29, 42-34).
- 10. Air and ground reconnaissance indicates that the Communists have fourteen Japaness .75 mm anti-aircraft guns in Liaoynan, six in Tunghua, five in Chihfeng (118-53, 42-18), twelve in Harbin and six in Haian. Three searchlights and three plane detectors (probably sonic) are reported in Chihfeng.
- Under the instruction of Japanese, Russian and ex-Manchukuo naval officers, the Communists are using four ships of the ex-Manchukuo river defense naval force to train naval cadets. The training started near the end of March. The names of the ships are as follows: Shuntien (順天), Yangmin (養民), Chinjen (宋仁) and Tingpien (宋代). The ships range from two to five hundred tons and each ship has four 90 mm guns.
